

Facilities

Under the Oaks

Under the Oaks is a small park with a big history. On July 6, 1854, a large gathering of anti-slavery supporters gathered in the area of Franklin and Second streets where the present day park is located. Some attribute this event as the start of the Republican Party, making Jackson the birthplace of the party.

Under the Oaks now holds various historical markers and monuments to mark this important piece of Jackson history.

Under the Oaks

418 Second Street
Jackson, MI 49203

Rating

This facility has not yet been rated.

▲ Back to top